Congratulations to QOC member/e-punch guru, Valerie Meyer, for winning the 2012 Silva Award, Orienteering USA's annual award given to one individual in recognition of their outstanding contribution to orienteering nationally. If you want to get the merest hint of how much she has done on the national stage over the years in addition to all she does just for QOC printing maps and supporting our use of e-punching, take a look here [2].
