Night orienteering returns - join us for this Fall's romp in the dark! Register at the event between 5:45pm - 7:45pm, start any time between 6:00pm - 8:00pm, and be back no later than 10pm. Course stats are now posted (below). Course comments - including indicating which night courses are which day courses - are now also posted below.

Registration, start and finish will be in at the central Hemlock Lodge; please park where directed and walk up to the Lodge. There are also overnight bunk-style as well as platform tent possibilities at Hemlock; see information below.

Any youth or large groups attending, please contact the Event Director [2] so that we can coordinate pre-registration for your group; the group registration and waiver form [3] is part of the information on our Group Leaders [4] page.

Additional notes:

- For this night event, please do not take dogs with you while you are out on your course.
- Map scale is 1:7500 for Easy, Intermediate, and Advanced/Short; it is 1:10,000 for Advanced/Long.

- Please avoid running near any of the houses near or off the map edges.
- Want to learn more about headlamps? Check out this thread [5] on AP, or ask QOC members Ted Good or Greg Lennon, who have the Petzl Tikka RXP (available at REI and elsewhere) and Cree 1800lm (eBay!) headlamps, respectively. Although not orienteering specific, general reviews sites include this one [6] and this one [7].

Bunk & Tent Information: Lodging reservations are handled by the Adventure Link's Group Program Manager, Ashley Suntheimer, email: ashley@adventurelinks.net, tel. 571-281-3556.

- Bunkhouses: There are four bunkhouses (two female and two male), with two rooms each of 12 beds (24 each). Rate is $15.00 per person per night for bunkhouses.
- Tents: Platform tents have 8 beds per tent, and looks like they have 8 tents. Rate is $10.00 per person per night.
- Facilities: There is a central bathhouse by the cabins with separate male and female facilities, including showers.
- Photos and floor plans are on their website [8].
- Our registration will be at the Lodge, just up the path from cabins and bathhouse. Facility overview is here [9]
