

Balls Bluff

ShareThis [1]

February 22
Saturday

Pre-registration is required and will open on Monday, Feb. 17 at 6pm and close at 12 noon on *Friday* Feb. 21. There will be no day-of registration.

Welcome back to Balls Bluff Battlefield Regional Park, a National Historic Landmark and the site of Loudoun County's largest Civil War battle. Event Director Bill Johns and Course Setter Carl Lundgren will have a full set of courses (white through blue) for you to enjoy. For this *Saturday* event, parking will be at the The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS), and driving directions are given below. Starting at 9:30am, a shuttle bus will take all orienteers to the registration & start/finish area.

Check in at the reg area will open about 9:45am, and courses will open at 10:00am. As always, be off the course no later than 3pm and remember to download at our e-punch station even if you did not finish. We expect the last shuttle returning to the LDS parking lot to leave at 3:15pm.

Come Join Us! A group of QOC orienteers & volunteers will meet after the event at the Vanish Farmwoods Brewery, located here [2], just 8.7 miles north of Balls Bluff off of Route 15. Vanish serves a great selection of pub grub - bar snacks, wood fired pizzas, BBQ, burgers, oysters plus more - and features both wine and 20+ beers brewed on site with local ingredients. See the Vanish website [3] for more information.

Keep in mind:

- Beginner's instruction will be available.
- For those new to orienteering, make sure to check out our [Your First Event \[4\]](#) and [Orienteering Techniques For Beginners \[5\]](#) webpages, and if they don't answer any question you have, just use our [Contact Form \[6\]](#) and ask.
- Group Leaders (of larger groups): please contact the [Event Director \[7\]](#) so they are aware of your plans.
- While leashed dogs are technically permitted in the park, they are not allowed on the shuttle buses.
- Port-a-johns will be near the start/finish area.
